

The enterprise affecting incident that occurred on Tuesday May 7th was caused by an issue with a storage duplication device which created a network loop. The problem was eliminated and all services should be restored. COT will continue to determine the root cause of the issue and take steps to prevent similar incidents.

If customers have any remaining issues, please contact the Commonwealth Service Desk.